TITUSVILLE PLAYHOUSE

A Note from the Executive and Artistic Director

Welcome to the Titusville Playhouse and DEAR EVAN HANSEN!

Welcome to the opening of our 62nd Season. There is something incredibly special about beginning a new season together, and I can think of no better way to do that than with Dear Evan Hansen. Since the moment we announced this title, I have been excited to share it with our community, and now, after watching this remarkable cast bring it to life, I can honestly say it has exceeded every expectation.

I've had the privilege of directing and sitting through rehearsals over the past several weeks, and I have been moved every single time. This extraordinary cast and creative team have approached this story with honesty, compassion, and tremendous heart. Their performances remind us that behind every smile is a story we may never know, and that a simple act of kindness or understanding can truly change someone's life.

While Dear Evan Hansen has become one of the defining musicals of our time, its message feels even more meaningful today. In a world where we are more connected than ever through technology, it also reminds us how important genuine human connection really is. It asks us to see one another, to listen, to forgive, and to remember that none of us has to face life's challenges alone.

That reminder has never felt more personal to me. As many of you know, the past few months—and especially the last few weeks—have been some of the most difficult of my life. Through it all, I have never had to face those challenges alone. This incredible cast, the amazing people I have the privilege of working alongside every day at the Playhouse, and you—our patrons and friends—have surrounded me with love, kindness, strength, and support. I can never adequately express my gratitude. Your compassion has meant more to me than I could ever put into words. From the bottom of my heart, thank you.

If this production helps even one person feel seen, reminds someone they are valued, or encourages someone to reach out to another person with kindness, then I believe we've shared something truly special together tonight.

It is an honor to present this production as the opening of our 62nd Season, and I couldn't be prouder of the cast, designers, technicians, and crew who have poured their hearts into every moment you are about to experience. I truly believe this production is something special, and I hope it moves you as deeply as it has moved me.

Thank you for supporting live theatre and for making the Titusville Playhouse a place where stories continue to inspire, challenge, and bring our community together. We are grateful to begin another incredible season with you, and we hope you'll tell your friends and family about this unforgettable production that you can experience only here at the Titusville Playhouse.

Thank you for joining us tonight. Thank you for supporting live theatre. And most of all, thank you for sharing your time with us.

Thank You!

A Healing Partnership Between Titusville Playhouse and Parrish Healthcare

Art has long been recognized as a powerful tool in the healing process. Since 2016, Parrish Healthcare and Titusville Playhouse have proudly partnered in a one-of-a-kind collaboration that highlights how health care organizations and the arts can come together to uplift and strengthen a community.

Through this meaningful partnership, Parrish Healthcare purchases all unsold tickets for Titusville Playhouse performances and gifts them to individuals who are battling cancer, living with chronic health conditions or simply in need of a healing experience.

Why do we do this? Because during life's most challenging moments, the gift of live performance—through storytelling, music, dance and drama—can offer comfort, hope and healing in ways that medicine alone cannot.

We hope you enjoy today's performance and wish all in our community continued good health and wellness.
